We miss you when you are away and we feel enlivened by your return.

Religious Exploration This Sunday: Native American Heritage Month

To the children and youth-Join us this Sunday November 20th as we celebrate Native American Heritage Month in Religious Exploration. We will make corn husk dolls and learn the story behind why the people of the Oneida Nation do not add faces to their dolls. Try your hand at beadwork while we explore the importance of wampum beads in ceremonies and in promises of peace made between native peoples. Come explore the art, language, and stories of the Haudenosaunee peoples as we honor their contributions-both past and present-to our country and the world. We believe this program will be engaging for youth of all ages!

Caution!

Even though every attempt was made to clear the parking lot and walkways to the church following the huge snowstorm, there are still some icy patches. Please take care when walking from your car to the church for the Thanksgiving celebration tomorrow - and on Sunday when arriving for the church service.

YouTube Channel

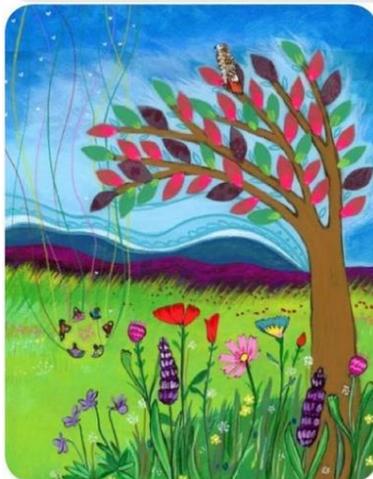

Zoom services produced by our congregation are recorded and placed on our You Tube channel for two months. Copyrighted material for which we don't have permission is cut out, as are elements of the services which may involve sharing of private information.

Phone Tree

The default method of notifying the congregation of cancellations is to put the information on the website and email it out. However, some people would like to also be called on the phone. Rather than trying to call absolutely everyone, we are putting together a list of just those who prefer to be notified by phone. If that's you, then either reply to this email or call 315-921-1162

Discussion Hour

Discussion Hour is an open meeting in the informal lounge every Sunday between 9:30 and 10:15. People drop in whenever they get there and drop out when they need more coffee.

--The first Sunday of every month will be "Unitarian Universalism." If there are newcomers, this will be introductory level, and old hands are welcome to come help educate. If there are no newcomers, we can talk about the current events in the denomination generally.

--The second Sunday of every month will be a "common read" discussion. If there is no "common read" currently being discussed we'll just talk about what we've read lately.

--The remaining Sundays will be free ranging discussions on a variety of topics. Usually there's a video and then a prompt based discussion about it.

This week, we will respond to the following:

Reparations have been proposed for past injustices against people of color. What do you think of this idea? If you are in favor of it, what form would it take? If you are against it, what would you recommend instead?

Urban Mission Foodbank

There's always a container at the back of the sanctuary for food donations for the Urban Mission. They desperately need food donations (non-perishable) at this time. All Souls consolidates small donations and once the box is full someone will take it over to the Mission. Please bring a little something each time you come.

All Souls Thanksgiving 2022

It's a regular tradition at All Souls to have a traditional Thanksgiving Dinner in our social hall on Thanksgiving Day. Everybody brings a dish, and many members bring their relative families to share the holiday with their church family. There's a sign-up roster in the social hall. The dishes we currently have spoken for are:

20 pound, local, free range, organic turkey

Supplemental turkey of other provenance

Stuffing

Tofurkey

Vegetable

Turnip Rutabega

Pickles Cheese etc...

Pie

Chocolate Dessert

Green Bean Casserole

Salad

Cranberry Relish

Cranberry Sauces

Apple Cider

several entrees "to be determined"

Members and Friends Directory

The annual Members and Friends Directory is out in draft form, for those who are in it. Many of the newer photos are cropped stills from Zoom recordings. Some of the other photos are looking pretty old. But these are the pictures that will be used unless the office gets new one's sent in or a request to hold off until they can be made. They'll be printed up soon in black and white for distribution. If you want a color one the fee is a 5 dollar donation in the collection plate. Please reply to this email to request a color Directory. If you aren't in it, or you think someone who has been axed should be put in, please send that information.

Beginner Tai Chi

Ann Halback's Beginner Tai Chi is starting a new cohort. Come Monday at 11 am.
